

Privacy

SETEC Engineering GmbH & Co KG respects your privacy and is committed to protecting it. We have structured our website so that, in general, you can visit us without being personally identifiable or your personal information being revealed.

However, if you do decide to disclose personal information (any information that can be used to identify you), you can rest assured that we will use this information only for the purpose of maintaining our client relationship with you.

Accordingly, you can generally use our website without providing personal data. If personal data is obtained from our websites (such as name, address or e-mail address), then this data is only ever obtained volunteered by the user. This data will not be passed on or disclosed to third parties without your explicit consent.

We point out explicitly that data transfer over the Internet (such as communication by e-mail) can be subject to security vulnerabilities. Complete protection of data against access by third parties is impossible.

The trust of our clients is important to us. That is why we respect your data privacy and inform you of any and all collection and storage of data and of your rights to information, correction, blocking and deletion of this data.

1. Data collection and storage

When a website is visited, the browser sends general information about the browser type and version, operating system in use, referrer URL, IP address, filename, access status, transmitted data volume and date and time of the server request. This data cannot be attributed to a person or other data source and will only be stored until used for statistical analysis, after which it will be deleted.

2. Cookies

Your browser furthermore stores so-called cookies. These are files that help to make your internet surfing experience more user-friendly. You can prevent your browser from storing cookies in your browser's options.

3. Information, correction, blocking and deletion

Personal data, for the purposes of answering enquiries, handling orders and technical administration, is collected and stored - unavailable to third parties - only with your permission. Data is only ever forwarded to third parties for the purpose of handling your order or if you give your consent to do so, which you may revoke at any time. We do not forward or sell personal data.

You are entitled at all times to request information on the stored data, its origin and the purpose of its storage. Furthermore, in accordance with the relevant laws, you have the right to correct, block or delete your personal data if necessary. You can make corresponding enquiries or a request for the correction, blocking or deletion of your personal data using the contact data named on our website.

It is prohibited to use contact data provided on our website's legal notice for dispatching information that has not been explicitly requested. As the operator of this website, we explicitly reserve the right to take legal action against those who send unsolicited advertising information, such as "spam" mails.
